

Justyna Kowalik

Secretary General, Architecture sans frontiers international
Poland

About

Justyna Kowalik, a European based, licenced architect and 3d artist. MA with honour's in architecture and urban planning at Warsaw's University of Technology, Poland.

One of the founders and active member of Architect sans Frontieres OW SARP Poland. Leading designer and participant in several ASF PL designs, initiatives and workshops all around the world. Secretary General of Architecture sans Frontieres International since 2020.

Areas of Interest: Improving the quality of living of the poorest and most vulnerable societies, bringing help to societies suffering from natural disasters. Sustainable design and architecture as a tool to fight global climate changes.