

Redkolis Mariia

Architect | Designer

Lead Architect

REDKOLIS Studios

RUSSIAN FEDERATION

About

Mariia brilliantly defended her diploma as an architect-designer, graduating from the Faculty of Cadastre and Construction in 2014. Has more than 9 years of architectural design experience in the field of: urban planning and planning for the development of residential buildings, improvement of residential and residential premises.

Laureate of national and international architectural competition.

Since September 2017, she began to cooperate with the Naked Heart Foundation to create inclusive play parks and playgrounds. 12 projects of public play parks were implemented in different cities of Russia, 6 of them were built in cooperation with the Coca-Cola Foundation, as a legacy of FIFA 2018. Lives in New York continues her professional career as an architectural designer for one of the international architectural companies.